The life of our parish is guided by the parish mission which is to educate, form and transform persons into disciples of Christ and to foster their active participation in the life, work and mission of the Church. All parishes are called to be “schools of discipleship” assisting the People of God with the ongoing life long conversion required to be followers of Jesus Christ. It is in our parishes, families and in the world that we are living witnesses to Christ’s love and the faith we profess. Discipleship is our invitation to continue Christ’s saving mission here and now and through generous stewardship change the world!

Third Sunday of Lent

God's temple is holy, and you are that temple: all you who believe in Christ and whose belief makes you love him.

Our Lord's driving out of the temple people who were seeking their own ends, who came to the temple to buy and sell, is symbolic. For if that temple was a symbol it obviously follows that the body of Christ, the true temple of which the other was an image, has within it some who are buyers and sellers, or in other words, people who are seeking their own interests and not those of Jesus Christ.

St. Augustine

Table Prayer - Lent 3

Father, you have taught us to overcome our sins by prayer, fasting and works of mercy.

We thank you for nourishing us and preparing us for the new life to come.

We ask this through Christ our Lord.

Amen

Preparing for Confession

The Spirit helps us to discern our sins

Before confessing your sins, invite the Spirit to help you examine your conscience. Reflect deeply on your activities and attitudes. Let God know what you have learned and that you are sorry. There are many ways to examine your conscience. Many people use the Ten Commandments, a classic guide of good behavior. Others use the Beatitudes, a positive framework for blessedness.

The classic method starts with some sayings of Jesus. An examination of conscience is not like a test and report to a priest point by point. Rather, it jogs your memory and helps you listen for God's Spirit.

Jesus says, You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart.

+ When have I not set my heart on God?

+ When have I loved the things of this world or my own preferences more than God?

+ Have I listened to the Word of God?

+ Am I faithful to prayer? Do I pray daily?

+ Do I keep God's name holy?

+ Do I go to Mass regularly?

Reflection — A Message From Saint Paul

Brothers and sisters: Jews demand signs and Greeks look for wisdom, but we proclaim Christ crucified, a stumbling block to Jews and foolishness to Gentiles, but to those who are called, Jews and Greeks alike, Christ the power of God and the wisdom of God. For the foolishness of God is wiser than human wisdom, and the weakness of God is stronger than human strength.

“Taking an “Inward Glance”

We Christians take the crucifixion for granted.

Have you knelt before the Cross this Lent?

Weekend Co-ed Retreat April 12-14, 2024 Finding God in All Things Led by Fr. Paul Campbell, S.J.

Ignatian spirituality is known for its insistence that God can be found in all things. It's important to note that we don't find God [because God isn't somehow lost or missing] as much as we find God finding us.

For Christians, God isn't a "divine clockmaker" who created our world and then went away. No, Emmanuel – God with us – is closer to us than we can possibly imagine.

The retreat will examine several areas of Ignatian spirituality so that we can better discern how to allow God more intimately into our lives.

Our retreat begins with dinner on Friday evening at 6:30pm and ends Sunday after lunch.

Use the QR Code or visit www.loyola.org to register.

St. Patrick Church Lenten Mission

Rediscover Prayer - Come Closer to God

Led by Regina Furlan
Spiritual Director & Retreat Leader

You are invited this Lenten season to journey together with fellow seekers of God through three different types of prayer. Learn what works best for you as you take stock of where your faith journey is and grow deeper in the love of God.

All are welcome at the following one hour opportunities of Prayer and Fellowship.

All meetings will take place in St. Patrick Church, Chatham, NJ. While you're encouraged to participate in all sessions, attendance at each one is not required.

Wednesday, February 28, at 7:00 PM: The Scriptural Rosary - The rosary prayed with short scriptural passages to bring us deeper into the mystery of the life of Christ.

Wednesday, March 6, at 7:00 PM: Lectio Divina - "Divine Reading" - a traditional practice of scriptural reading intended to promote communion with God and to increase the knowledge of God's word.

Wednesday March 13, at 7:00 PM: Centering Prayer - learning to find God in the silence. A daily practice bears the fruit of oneness with God in all things.

Regina is a retired opera singer whose small career brought her much joy for 20 years. She has 10 years of experience in music ministry, religious education and retreat direction. She works as a spiritual director with an office at St. Rose of Lima Church in Short Hills. She is also an adjunct staff member at Loyola Jesuit Center in Morristown. THIRD WEEK OF LENT

RAISING CHICKENS TO SUPPORT HER FAMILY

Nowadays, in Morazán, El Salvador, it is very difficult to know when the rainy or dry seasons will be. The unpredictable weather puts the livelihood of Sandra's family in jeopardy.

Despite the challenges, Sandra and her husband, Santos, remain dedicated to ensuring their children grow healthy and succeed in school. Learn how their strong family dynamic enabled Sandra to participate in a Catholic Relief Services' project on raising chickens and how her determination has helped her family and community.

Giving Calendar 2024

Our parish relies on the generosity of our community to enable our mission and ministry. Because of you, our parish is changing the lives of many around us.

St. Rose of Lima Parish Short Hills NJ

February 2024

Dear Family,

Peace!

After the perfect storm of special interest collections last year with raffles, coat drive, Christmas, etc., I decided to publish a calendar of what things appear to be scheduled for 2024. It is my hope that it will allow all of us to determine which events we realistically can support without surprises.

I would also like to point out that the largest chunk of time is focused on the Annual Appeal. I am grateful that last year (2023) we reached our goal of $113,000. By reaching our goal, we saved the parish $25,000 in assessments this year. Our goal this year is also $113,000. It is my hope that we can reach our goal again this year and once again save ourselves $25,000. I have already sent in my donation to the Appeal.

I also want to thank everyone who helped us achieve our steps goal. We are going out to bid and are still on track to begin construction in early June. I will keep you posted as things develop.

I hope that you find this calendar helpful, and I am always available for any questions or concerns.

Gratefully, your brother in Christ,

Fr. Larry
