The life of our parish is guided by the parish mission which is to educate, form and transform persons into disciples of Christ and to foster their active participation in the life, work and mission of the Church. All parishes are called to be “schools of discipleship” assisting the People of God with the ongoing life long conversion required to be followers of Jesus Christ. It is in our parishes, families and in the world that we are living witnesses to Christ’s love and the faith we profess. Discipleship is our invitation to continue Christ’s saving mission here and now and through generous stewardship change the world!

3RD SUNDAY OF EASTER

THE PASCHAL CANDLE should stand in the sanctuary during the entire season of Easter. This candle symbolizes the risen Christ who conquers sin and death and, for that reason, is lit during baptisms and usually at funerals as well. Each year, a new paschal candle is prepared during the opening rites at the Easter Vigil. It is marked with a cross, an alpha and omega, and the numerals of the year. Five grains of incense, representing the wounds of Christ, are also embedded into the wax.

EASTER 3 — TABLE PRAYER

Father, all-powerful and ever-living God,
We praise you with greater joy than ever in this Easter season.

Christ has made us children of the light, rising to new and everlasting life.

We do well always and everywhere to give you thanks by generously handing on to others the gifts we have received from your bounty.

Through Christ may glory, honor and power be yours forever. Amen

REFLECTION— “He was made known to them in the breaking of bread.” (Luke 24)

Usually this is where the story of Emmaus ends, with this line of coming to recognize him, their eyes were no longer restrained; in the action of Jesus’ feeding them, the story is over. This is the way the story is told when used as a description of the liturgy, and yet it is not a natural way to break the line or stop the story. It continues amazingly, the telling summons the presence of the Risen Lord: While they were still talking about this, Jesus himself stood among them and said to them, “Peace be with you.” Just as Jesus’ breaking of the bread caused them to recognize his presence among them for hours while he opened their minds and stirred their hearts back to life on the road, now our telling of the stories, literally, telling of how we encounter and come to recognize Jesus in the breaking of the bread and Word in our lives and in the larger history of the world community, we summon the presence of the Risen Lord among us! The peace of the Risen Lord is summoned by our telling of the stories of Scripture and letting that story rewrite our own lives and futures. The peace of Christ comes to the community as we announce the Good News to one another.

THIRD SUNDAY OF EASTER

“He was made known to them in the breaking of bread.”

(Luke 24)

Christ is indeed alive and well, present in our midst, not as a historical figure but as mystery and sacrament. The only way I am to ever find him is in the here and now; in myself, the world around me, in the community marked by his name, in word and sacrament. I find him in the present moment, being what I am called to be, doing what I am called to do, at the moment, to the best of my ability out of love for God and others.

-Rev. Dennis Krouse

EASTER 3 PRAYER

God of life,

In your risen Son you reveal
your abiding presence among us and summon those reborn in baptism
to lives of worship and service.

Grant us courage and zeal in bearing witness before the world to your Son, Jesus Christ,
the firstborn from the dead, who lives and reigns with you now and always in the unity
of the Holy Spirit,

God for ever and ever. Amen

ARCHDIOCESE of NEWARK

Statement from Cardinal Joseph W. Tobin, C.Ss.R., Archbishop of Newark

In response to recent events, I reaffirm that Pope Leo serves a higher authority and desires to proclaim the Gospel faithfully and advance the Church's peaceful mission in a world deeply in need of healing. He will continue to speak clearly against war and other offenses against human dignity and to call for authentic dialogue, because the Church's witness is grounded in the peace of Christ, not in partisan interests.

Recent statements and actions by the President of the United States convey a grave misunderstanding of the Holy Father's ministry and a troubling lack of respect for the faith of millions. The graphic exploitation of sacred imagery is deeply offensive and undermines the reverence owed to what believers hold most dear.

Every April, organizations and communities observe Child Abuse Prevention Month, a time devoted to renewing our shared commitment to safeguarding children and youth.
