ST. ROSE OF LIMA PARISH

50 Short Hills Avenue

Short Hills, NJ 07078

The life of our parish is guided by the parish mission which is to educate, form and transform persons into disciples of Christ and to foster their active participation in the life, work and mission of the Church. All parishes are called to be "schools of discipleship" assisting the People of God with the ongoing life long conversion required to be followers of Jesus Christ. It is in our parishes, families and in the world that we are living witnesses to Christ's love and the faith we profess. Discipleship is our invitation to continue Christ's saving mission here and now and through generous stewardship change the world!

FIFTH SUNDAY OF EASTER

May 15, 2022

Acts 14:21-27 / Revelation 21:1-5a / John 13:31-33a

Mass airs each Sunday at 7:00AM and 9:00AM on Comcast 36, Verizon 33. Available on-demand at <https://httpvonline.org/live/>.
Mass will also be available each Sunday on our website or anytime at www.youtube.com/user/stroseshorthills. The Sunday Mass worship aid with readings, gospel and music is available on our website at stroseshorthills.org.

READING I

Acts 14:21-27

After Paul and Barnabas had proclaimed the good news to that city and made a considerable number of disciples, they returned to Lystra and to Iconium and to Antioch. They strengthened the spirits of the disciples and exhorted them to persevere in the faith, saying, "It is necessary for us to undergo many hardships to enter the kingdom of God." They appointed elders for them in each church and, with prayer and fasting, commended them to the Lord in whom they had put their faith. Then they traveled through Pisidia and reached Pamphylia. After proclaiming the word at Perga they went down to Attalia. From there they sailed to Antioch, where they had been commended to the grace of God for the work they had now accomplished. And when they arrived, they called the church together and reported what God had done with them and how he had opened the door of faith to the Gentiles.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Ps 145:8-9, 10-11, 12-13

R. I will praise your name for ever, my king and my God.
or R. Alleluia.

The LORD is gracious and merciful, slow to anger and of great kindness.

The LORD is good to all and compassionate toward all his works.

R. I will praise your name for ever, my king and my God.
or R. Alleluia.

Let all your works give you thanks, O LORD,
and let your faithful ones bless you.
Let them discourse of the glory of your kingdom and speak of your might.

R. I will praise your name for ever, my king and my God.
or R. Alleluia.

Let them make known your might to the children of Adam,
and the glorious splendor of your kingdom.
Your kingdom is a kingdom for all ages,
and your dominion endures through all generations.

R. I will praise your name for ever, my king and my God.
or R. Alleluia

READING II

Revelation 21:1-5a

Then I, John, saw a new heaven and a new earth.
The former heaven and the former earth had passed away,
and the sea was no more.
I also saw the holy city, a new Jerusalem, coming down out of heaven from God,
prepared as a bride adorned for her husband.
I heard a loud voice from the throne saying,
"Behold, God's dwelling is with the human race.
He will dwell with them and they will be his people and God himself will always be with them as their God.
He will wipe every tear from their eyes, and there shall be no more death or mourning, wailing or pain,
for the old order has passed away."

The One who sat on the throne said,
"Behold, I make all things new."

ALLELUIA

John 13:34

R. Alleluia, alleluia.

I give you a new commandment, says the Lord:
love one another as I have loved you.

R. Alleluia, alleluia.

GOSPEL

John 13:31-33a, 34-35

When Judas had left them, Jesus said,
"Now is the Son of Man glorified, and God is glorified in him.
If God is glorified in him,
God will also glorify him in himself,
and God will glorify him at once.
My children, I will be with you only a little while longer.
I give you a new commandment: love one another.
As I have loved you, so you also should love one another.
This is how all will know that you are my disciples,
if you have love for one another."

PROFESSION OF FAITH

Nicene Creed

I believe in one God,
the Father almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all things visible and invisible.
I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten Son of God,
born of the Father before all ages,

God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.

For us men and for our salvation
he came down from heaven, (All bow) and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary and became man. (End bow)

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried,
and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures.

He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.
I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.
I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen

ACT OF SPIRITUAL COMMUNION

My Jesus,

I believe that you are present in the most Blessed Sacrament.

I love You above all things and I desire to receive You into my soul.

Since I cannot now receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually in my heart.

I embrace You as if You have already come, and unite myself wholly to You.

Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen.

Prayer for Healing

Lord, You invite all who are burdened to come to You. Allow your healing hand to heal me. Touch my soul with Your compassion for others. Touch my heart with Your courage and infinite love for all.
Touch my mind with Your wisdom, that my mouth may always proclaim Your praise. Teach me to reach out to You in my need, and help me to lead others to You by my example. Most loving Heart of Jesus, bring me health in body and spirit that I may serve You with all my strength. Touch gently this life which You have created, now and forever. Amen.

Fifth Sunday of Easter

Our first reading today and for all the Sundays of the Easter season is from the Acts of the Apostles.

This book is considered to be a continuation of the Gospel of Luke - composed by the same author and similarly meant for a gentile audience.

It is a theological essay about the growth and development of the early church as it spread from Jerusalem to Rome.

Though it's title sounds as if it is about the twelve apostles, it is primarily concerned with the activities of Peter and Paul.

Dinner Table Prayer

God of lasting love,

We do well always and everywhere to give you thanks for the gifts we have received from your bounty.

We praise you with greater joy on this Easter day.

Look with favor on this family and the family of the Church.

Grant that as we sit down together at table in joy and sincerity, may we always grow closer in the bond of love.

Through Christ may glory, honor and power be yours forever. Amen

Reflection—The Family You have Gathered Here Before You

Whatever we can say about the community that gathers for the Eucharist this Sunday, one of their descriptions in the Eucharistic prayer is “family.” That means whatever our political affiliation, our socio-economic status, our neighborhood, our nationality or lineage, we are called “family” at the Eucharist. The reason is that whatever our similarities or differences, we are gathered to worship the same God who has redeemed us by his Son and who has made us new, whole and one in Baptism. We belong to one another because we belong to Christ. We are members of “the Christian family.”

One of the theological meanings associated with the Lord's Prayer and the sign of peace at the Eucharist is that we, though diverse, ratify our oneness in Christ through these words and this gesture. Just as words and gestures ratify family belonging, so these words and this gesture signify and confirm Christian family belonging in the Church.

One parallel between daily living in any family and daily life in the family of the church is the “family table.” Just as families whatever their nature, eventually gather at table to share food and stories of life, so the church family gathers at the Eucharistic table to share food and stories of life. As we gather today as “the family [God] has gathered here before him,” may the food and stories strengthen us in the one thing that really matters in any family -our love for one another.

We behold your glory, O God,
in the love shown by your Son, lifted up on the cross and exalted on high.

Increase our love for one another,
that both in name and in truth
we may be disciples of the risen Lord Jesus

Special Thanks to St. Rose of Lima Parishioners

Pierre Toussaint Food Pantry
St Mary's Church
520 Martin Luther King Blvd.
Newark, NJ 07102

April, 2022

Dear Friends,

There is still uncertainty in the air!

- Spring struggles to break through the chilly nights.
- Covid still rears its ugly head.
- Gas prices are challenging and food prices overwhelming.
- And of course, all eyes are on the terrible suffering of the people of Ukraine.

Yet, these Easter days are filled with hope! The Christian Scriptures telling of the post-resurrection days are filled with meal stories. Jesus' meeting with his friends in the upper room, on the beach or on the Emmaus Road – sharing a meal – bread, wine, fish – and so much more. There is something holy about sharing food, sharing sustenance. It looks a little different on the side walk of King Blvd. but it is no less holy and sustaining.

Someone asked if our pantry would be open on Holy Saturday. The response: "Of course, this is what we do – take care of each other!" And so, the packers packed and as we opened the door, we had more Saturday morning volunteers than ever to serve our dear friends. One woman announced as she left with chicken in one hand and bag of fresh potatoes in the other: "Now I have our Easter Dinner!"

Sometimes I am not sure who leaves the pantry more satisfied our clients or our volunteers. Our clients leave laden with groceries, fresh produce and eggs, cheese or butter, chicken or fish and whatever other goodies we have to share. Our volunteers leave with full hearts knowing that because they are willing to give time and care, people leave Pierre Toussaint Pantry with food for their families and enough hope to sustain them a little longer. And YOU, you have shared in the continuing work of sharing sustenance for body and spirit for so many.

Inflation is hitting us all but of course those at the bottom of the economic ladder are hit the hardest. Yes, our statistics reflect that our numbers continue to climb again and we fear this to be true for the foreseeable future. We thank you for your support and the trust you place in us. May God bless you with every Easter Blessing of new life and joy!

Gratefully,
Sister Linda

*Thank you – over and over again!
Your van is our real go to place!
Blessings for your great generosity and support!*

Annual Appeal <sup>the 2022</sup>

January 14, 2022

Dear Sisters and Brothers in Christ,

A blessed New Year to you and your loved ones.

I recently celebrated the fifth anniversary of my installation as the Archbishop of Newark. During my homily, I shared the following words, which Paul wrote to his beloved friends in Philippi:

"Rejoice in the Lord always, I say it again, rejoice! ... Have no anxiety at all, but in everything, by prayer and petition, with thanksgiving, make your requests known to God."

God is always present to listen to our prayers and requests. This is evident in the faith and generosity of people like you who help fund the mission and the necessary programs and ministries of our Archdiocese. Thanks to the support of more than 25,000 families, last year we raised more than $9 Million to support our programs and ministries. I am also excited to announce that $1.2 Million was given back directly to the parishes that exceeded their Appeal goal to help them meet the immediate needs of their parish.

Your sacrificial support makes it possible for us to carry out the important work that we are called to do as missionary disciples of Jesus. Please accept my heartfelt thanks for your generosity and my assurance that we are exercising good stewardship of your gifts.

I have made my own gift to this year's Annual Appeal and I invite you to prayerfully consider a gift as well. The gifts we receive are used exclusively to serve the mission of the Church and nothing more. Despite the continued difficult climate, I am grateful to the people of this Archdiocese for their faith, generosity, and commitment.

Once again, thank you for your faithfulness. May Mary, Mother of our Redeemer and our Mother, protect you and lead you ever closer to her Son. You are in my prayers, and I ask you to remember me in yours as well.

Sincerely in Christ the Redeemer,

Cardinal Joseph W. Tobin, C.Ss.R.
Archbishop of Newark

Stewardship Reflection for the Fifth Sunday of Easter May 15, 2022

In today's Gospel Jesus makes a bold and clear statement to his disciples. "I give you a new commandment: Love one another. As I have loved you, so you also should love one another. This is how all will know that you are my disciples, if you have love for one another." We are called to love others as a sign of our discipleship in Jesus Christ. That includes even those "others" we might prefer to forget. We are so often tempted to draw lines between those who we will love and those who we consider not worthy of our love. This week take time to reflect on Jesus' love command. How often do we heed Jesus' love command? What change in our lives must take place in order for us to obey this command?

Prayer for Vocations

Father, Creator and Ruler of the universe, you enrich your Church with the gift of lives freely given in priestly service. Through this generous example, touch the hearts of many others to follow your call, so that future generations also may experience the joy of coming to know your word and responding in faith. We ask this through Jesus Christ, your Son, our Lord. Amen.

St. Rose Food Collection

Food donations are in great need at all food pantries in our area. Your donations help many who find themselves struggling to provide this basic need for them and their families.

Canned and dry food items may be dropped off anytime to our parish Blue Van located in the parking area. Thank you for your help!

Are You In The Loop?

Each Week we send an email which contains important announcements, links to Mass, worship aids, bulletin and the latest news from our the parish. If you would like to be added to this list, please email rsabatella@stroseshorthills.org

A Tradition Worth Keeping

We traditionally honor Mary during the month of May. This is most appropriate for the Mother of God who gave birth to the Savior of the world. Mary's heart is filled with the love of Christ and also with the love of every one of God's children. Would you be so kind to imitate that love of humanity by donating to the Catholic Charities Donation Bin(s)? We need used clothing, small appliances, shoes, linens, sheets, towels, stuffed animals, novels, knickknacks, and children's books. God Bless.

Any questions or comments, please contact Maria Biancheri at DonationsBins@ccannj.org or 973-596-3985

NORTH END BOY

A memoir of Catholic conversion set on the gritty streets of Elizabeth and Newark in 1978. Over an eventful two days, seven young friends come of age against a backdrop of urban crime, abandoned factories and political corruption.

Proceeds from book sales will be donated to St. Benedict's Preparatory School in Newark, NJ, which is featured in the book.
