THE MOST HOLY TRINITY

This solemnity is sometimes referred to as a "devotional" or "idea feast." That is, it does not connect directly to an event of the paschal mystery of Christ. Emphasis is on belief in the Trinity.

TRINITY TABLE PRAYER

As we sit down at our table we pray that our lives and our concern for the poor always give...
Glory to the Father, and to the Son,
and to the Holy Spirit now and forever. Amen

THE SIGN OF THE CROSS

Numerous pious exercises have a Trinitarian character or dimension. Most of them begin with the sign of the cross "in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit", the same formula with which the disciples of Jesus are baptized (cf. Mt 28, 19), thereby beginning a life of intimacy with the God, as sons of the Father, brothers of Jesus, and temples of the Holy Spirit. We use these words and sign ourselves with the cross thousands of time. Do we do this as a habit or do we reflect on its meaning? "In the name" suggests in the possession of or protection of. The sign of the cross can be understood to be surrender to God, a giving of our whole self to the Triune God. Every time we pray, gather for Mass or to celebrate a sacrament we begin with the sign of the cross "in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit", the same formula with which the disciples of Jesus are baptized (cf. Mt 28, 19), thereby beginning a life of intimacy with the God, as sons of the Father, brothers of Jesus, and temples of the Holy Spirit. This is no less true for us, the baptized disciples. The challenged is to make these words and accompanying gesture something other than habit.

GOD IS NOT A UNITARIAN!

Given the choice of believing that God is One, as Unitarians do OR believing that God is One but that the One God is Three Divine Persons, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, I imagine most people would say the first option seems more understandable. The concept of the Holy Trinity, whose feast we celebrate this Sunday, is something beyond our understanding. No matter how we try, we just can't get our minds around it. It's always a mystery.

Yet Catholics and all main-line Christians believe in the Holy Trinity and following the command of Jesus in this Sunday's Gospel, they baptize "in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit" (Matthew 28:16-20).

Yet the fact we cannot grasp the Trinity should be expected for God is God and beyond human understanding. The creature cannot fully comprehend its Creator. Besides, none of us can fully comprehend another human being, and at times we even find ourselves surprised at our own reactions and emotions. If we cannot fully understand ourselves or other persons, why do we think we can understand God?

Yet we do get some insight into the Trinity when we recall that God has revealed himself as love. The God who is love is a community of persons united in perfect love. A community of persons that goes beyond itself, for love is always expansive. God is the Father who gives life. God is the Son who reveals mercy and compassion. God is the Spirit who inspires us to love and draws us ever closer to God.

We might conclude that if God were not a Trinity of loving persons, we and all creation might not exist. God just might have been content being a self-contained "unit-arian."

Welcome New Parishioners

To become a parishioner of St. Rose, please select new member registration on our website stroseshorthills.org or use QR code to be transferred.

Do you know anyone who is homebound and unable to get to Mass? Recovering from a hospitalization or illness?

The St. Rose Justin Ministers are specifically trained to visit those who cannot be with us to share the Sunday Gospel, hear about the homily, pray with someone on behalf of our community and receive Communion. If you, or a family member or neighbor, would like a visit, either temporarily or indefinitely, please contact the parish office at 973-379-3912. If you would like to volunteer for this Ministry please contact Stephan Togher by email at stogher@stroseshorthills.org

Behind every worship service, public program, and the daily work of maintaining this historic church and house of prayer for all people are the donations of people like you.

We invite everyone to make a gift to support St. Rose of Lima's ministry of sharing God's love. Thank you for your continued support to St. Rose of Lima.

Report Financial Misconduct Confidentially

If you suspect financial misconduct, use EthicsPoint, an independent and confidential reporting tool that helps the Archdiocesan community address issues while promoting positive parish, school and workplace environments. Visit www.rcan.org for hotline and reporting link.
