ST. ROSE OF LIMA PARISH

50 Short Hills Avenue

Short Hills, NJ 07078

The life of our parish is guided by the parish mission which is to educate, form and transform persons into disciples of Christ and to foster their active participation in the life, work and mission of the Church. All parishes are called to be "schools of discipleship" assisting the People of God with the ongoing life long conversion required to be followers of Jesus Christ. It is in our parishes, families and in the world that we are living witnesses to Christ's love and the faith we profess. Discipleship is our invitation to continue Christ's saving mission here and now and through generous stewardship change the world!

From Msgr. Harahan's Mass of Retirement

Dear Parishioners,

Coming to Mass is a response to the gifts set out before us. As Melchisedek offered Abram the gifts of bread and wine, so Christ offers us Himself, hidden in these gifts. He asks us to honor Him, to pray to Him, to reverence Him, and as we receive Him He asks that we bring Him as leaven into a world so very much in need.

Here in this house we worship in praise and thanksgiving, in need and in sorrow. We come to be fed at this table and taught at this altar. Our prayers, our music, our distractions and our tears all make their way to heaven from here. The beauty and glory of this house are no mere earthly attributes. They express what happens when we gather in faith, acknowledge our needs and receive what we cannot give ourselves.

In this house we have baptized our children, brought them for Eucharist, celebrated their reconciliation: our young people have watched us, and they come to pray with us.

In this house we have found Christ and received Him. In our academy and our faith formation, in Pre-Cana and social outreach, in scripture sharing and RCIA, in scouting and basketball, the beauty of this house finds purpose.

The joining of spouses, the sounds of our choir, Christmas and Easter, the bishops at Confirmation, Masses of anointing: we are witnesses of joy. And on this altar are tears of small sadness and larger tragedy, family defeats and personal losses. The glory of this house includes the cries of newborns and the silence of our faithful departed. Without them we would be less a family of faith.

In word and sacrament this shelter of this house has nurtured concern and compassion. From our food pantry to our Advent Giving Tree, the gospel goes out and Christ touches so many. The bread of life given here enables us to be bread for the world. The bread of life spreads the beauty and love the One who nourishes us all.

The Eucharist is for those in need, those wandering in, those here every day, those asking pardon, those seeking strength, those losing hope, those coming back: those are each one of us. We come for a glimpse of glory, enough to sustain us. We come to be transformed by the beauty of divine grace. We come together to the right place.

To this house of prayer we come and we will come. This, our home of faith, is meant to prepare us for heaven, and strengthen us for the journey

Thank you to all our parishioners for making St. Rose of Lima an example of faith and discipleship. Our parishioners, each member of our staff, our ministers and volunteers, our Councils and committees, every person here participating through prayer, worship and service, thank you for the experience and life of St. Rose of Lima Parish. I am grateful to you and will always count my being with you a blessing.

May the Lord bless and reward each of you and your families.

With every good thought and prayer,

Fr. Harahan

READING I

Genesis 14:18-20

The LORD said to Elijah:

"You shall anoint Elisha, son of Shaphat of Abelmeholah, as prophet to succeed you."

Elijah set out and came upon Elisha, son of Shaphat, as he was plowing with twelve yoke of oxen;

he was following the twelfth.

Elijah went over to him and threw his cloak over him.

Elisha left the oxen, ran after Elijah, and said,

"Please, let me kiss my father and mother goodbye, and I will follow you."

Elijah answered, "Go back!

Have I done anything to you?"

Elisha left him, and taking the yoke of oxen, slaughtered them;

he used the plowing equipment for fuel to boil their flesh,
and gave it to his people to eat.

Then Elisha left and followed Elijah as his attendant.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Ps 16:1-2, 5, 7-8, 9-10, 11

R. You are my inheritance, O Lord.

Keep me, O God, for in you I take refuge;

I say to the LORD, "My Lord are you.

O LORD, my allotted portion and my cup,
you it is who hold fast my lot."

R. You are my inheritance, O Lord.

I bless the LORD who counsels me;

even in the night my heart exhorts me.

I set the LORD ever before me;

with him at my right hand I shall not be disturbed.

R. You are my inheritance, O Lord.

Therefore my heart is glad and my soul rejoices, my body, too, abides in confidence

because you will not abandon my soul to the netherworld, nor will you suffer your faithful one to undergo corruption.

R. You are my inheritance, O Lord.

You will show me the path to life,

fullness of joys in your presence,

the delights at your right hand forever.

R. You are my inheritance, O Lord.

READING II

Galatians 5:1, 13-18

Brothers and sisters:

For freedom Christ set us free;

so stand firm and do not submit again to the yoke of slavery.

For you were called for freedom, brothers and sisters.

But do not use this freedom

as an opportunity for the flesh;

rather, serve one another through love.

For the whole law is fulfilled in one statement, namely, You shall love your neighbor as yourself.

But if you go on biting and devouring one another,

beware that you are not consumed by one another.

I say, then: live by the Spirit and you will certainly not gratify the desire of the flesh.

For the flesh has desires against the Spirit, and the Spirit against the flesh;

these are opposed to each other,

so that you may not do what you want.

But if you are guided by the Spirit, you are not under the law.

ALLELUIA

1 Sm 3:9; Jn 6:68c

R. Alleluia, alleluia.

Speak, Lord, your servant is listening;

you have the words of everlasting life.

R. Alleluia, alleluia.

GOSPEL

Luke 9:51-62

When the days for Jesus' being taken up were fulfilled, he resolutely determined to journey to Jerusalem,
and he sent messengers ahead of him.
On the way they entered a Samaritan village to prepare for his reception there, but they would not welcome him
because the destination of his journey was Jerusalem.
When the disciples James and John saw this they asked,
"Lord, do you want us to call down fire from heaven to consume them?"
Jesus turned and rebuked them, and they journeyed to another village.

As they were proceeding on their journey someone said to him,
"I will follow you wherever you go."
Jesus answered him,
"Foxes have dens and birds of the sky have nests, but the Son of Man has nowhere to rest his head."

And to another he said, "Follow me."
But he replied, "Lord, let me go first and bury my father."
But he answered him, "Let the dead bury their dead.
But you, go and proclaim the kingdom of God."
And another said, "I will follow you, Lord, but first let me say farewell to my family at home."
To him Jesus said, "No one who sets a hand to the plow and looks to what was left behind is fit for the kingdom of God."

PROFESSION OF FAITH

Nicene Creed

I believe in one God,
the Father almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten Son of God,
born of the Father before all ages,
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.
For us men and for our salvation
he came down from heaven,
(All bow) and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary and became man. (End bow)
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried,

and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures.
He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.

He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.
I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.
I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come.

Amen.

ACT OF SPIRITUAL COMMUNION

My Jesus,

I believe that you are present in the most Blessed Sacrament.

I love You above all things and I desire to receive You into my soul.

Since I cannot now receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually in my heart.

I embrace You as if You have already come, and unite myself wholly to You.

Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen.

Concluding Prayer

O God, who in this wonderful Sacrament

Jesus, Lord of Creation, grant us the grace to offer ourselves, our works, and all creation in union with you to the Father.

Stewardship Reflection for the Thirteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time June 25/26, 2022

Today's Gospel reveals to us the beginning of Jesus' journey to Jerusalem. We will journey with Jesus for many Sundays to come, and along the way he will teach us about the demands of discipleship. His instructions may seem harsh and unreasonable to our ears. His response to legitimate requests to postpone the journey reminds us that there are always justifiable excuses to defer the journey or put off the responsibilities of discipleship. Other important matters compete for our attention. Some of us must make heart-wrenching choices, but there is urgency about Jesus' mission to bring forth God's kingdom. His demand is that we proclaim the Kingdom of God now. Is this our first priority, or do we have other priorities?
