ST. ROSE OF LIMA PARISH

50 Short Hills Avenue
Short Hills, NJ 07078

The life of our parish is guided by the parish mission which is to educate, form and transform persons into disciples of Christ and to foster their active participation in the life, work and mission of the Church. All parishes are called to be "schools of discipleship" assisting the People of God with the ongoing life long conversion required to be followers of Jesus Christ. It is in our parishes, families and in the world that we are living witnesses to Christ's love and the faith we profess. Discipleship is our invitation to continue Christ's saving mission here and now and through generous stewardship change the world!

TWENTY-THIRD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

September 4, 2022

Wisdom 9:13-18b / Philemon 9-10, 12-17 / Luke 14:25-33

Mass airs each Sunday at 7:00AM and 9:00AM on Comcast 36, Verizon 33. Available on-demand at <https://httvonline.org/live/>.

Mass will also be available each Sunday on our website or anytime at www.youtube.com/user/stroseshorthills. The Sunday Mass

Worship aid with readings, gospel and music is available on our website at stroseshorthills.org.

READING I

Wisdom 9:13-18b

Who can know God's counsel, or who can conceive what the LORD intends?
For the deliberations of mortals are timid,
and unsure are our plans.
For the corruptible body burdens the soul and the earthen shelter weighs down the mind that has many concerns.
And scarce do we guess the things on earth,
and what is within our grasp we find with difficulty;
but when things are in heaven, who can search them out?
Or who ever knew your counsel, except you had given wisdom and sent your holy spirit from on high?
And thus were the paths of those on earth made straight.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Ps 90:3-4, 5-6, 12-13, 14 & 17

R. In every age, O Lord, you have been our refuge.

You turn man back to dust,
saying, "Return, O children of men."

For a thousand years in your sight are as yesterday, now that it is past, or as a watch of the night.

R. In every age, O Lord, you have been our refuge.

You make an end of them in their sleep;
the next morning they are like the changing grass,
Which at dawn springs up anew,
but by evening wilts and fades.

R. In every age, O Lord, you have been our refuge.

Teach us to number our days aright,
that we may gain wisdom of heart.

Return, O LORD! How long?

Have pity on your servants!

R. In every age, O Lord, you have been our refuge.

Fill us at daybreak with your kindness, that we may shout for joy and gladness all our days.
And may the gracious care of the LORD our God be ours;
prosper the work of our hands for us!

Prosper the work of our hands!

R. In every age, O Lord, you have been our refuge.

READING II

Philemon 9-10, 12-17

I, Paul, an old man,
and now also a prisoner for Christ Jesus,
urge you on behalf of my child Onesimus,
whose father I have become in my imprisonment;
I am sending him, that is, my own heart, back to you.
I should have liked to retain him for myself,
so that he might serve me on your behalf
in my imprisonment for the gospel, but I did not want to do anything without your consent,
so that the good you do might not be forced but voluntary.
Perhaps this is why he was away from you for a while,
that you might have him back forever,
no longer as a slave
but more than a slave, a brother, beloved especially to me, but even more so to you,
as a man and in the Lord.
So if you regard me as a partner, welcome him as you would me.

ALLELUIA

Ps 119:135

R. Alleluia, alleluia.

Let your face shine upon your servant;
and teach me your laws.

R. Alleluia, alleluia.

GOSPEL

Luke 14:25-33

Great crowds were traveling with Jesus,
and he turned and addressed them,
"If anyone comes to me without hating his father and mother,
wife and children, brothers and sisters,
and even his own life,
he cannot be my disciple.
Whoever does not carry his own cross and come after me
cannot be my disciple.
Which of you wishing to construct a tower does not first sit down and calculate the cost to see if there is enough for its completion?
Otherwise, after laying the foundation and finding himself unable to finish the work

the onlookers should laugh at him and say,
'This one began to build but did not have the resources to finish.'
Or what king marching into battle would not first sit down and decide whether with ten thousand troops he can successfully oppose another king advancing upon him with twenty thousand troops?
But if not, while he is still far away,
he will send a delegation to ask for peace terms.
In the same way,
anyone of you who does not renounce all his possessions
cannot be my disciple."

PROFESSION OF FAITH

Nicene Creed

I believe in one God,
the Father almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten Son of God,
born of the Father before all ages,
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.
For us men and for our salvation
He came down from heaven,

(All bow) and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary and became man. (End bow)

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate,
he suffered death and was buried,
and rose again on the third day
in accordance with the Scriptures.
He ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son,
who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified,
who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.
I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.
I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

ACT OF SPIRITUAL COMMUNION

My Jesus,
I believe that you are present in the most Blessed Sacrament.
I love You above all things and I desire to receive You into my soul.
Since I cannot now receive You sacramentally,
come at least spiritually in my heart.
I embrace You as if You have already come, and unite myself wholly to You.
Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen.

JESUS TAKES THE CROSS

Pope Francis

"When you 'take up the cross,' you find your proper place in life. When we take on the needs of our brothers and sisters, then we are aware, with amazement and gratitude, that someone else is taking us upon his shoulders — Jesus!"

The Nativity of the Blessed Virgin Mary September 8

Other than Jesus himself and various commemorations of the unfolding paschal mystery, no one else has as many festivals on our liturgical calendar as does Mary. These festivals for the most part are quite ancient, and both their number and antiquity witness to the high regard the Church has for Mary. This particular feast day also cannot be separated from one nine months previous to it, Mary's immaculate conception. In both her conception and birth Mary is honored as the one who is free from sin and worthy to be the mother of God.

Until the annunciation, we know nothing about Mary's life—nothing about her parents, her birth, and her childhood. We can learn a lesson from this. Mary's "lowliness," simplicity, humility all direct us to her whole life being only in relation to Jesus. All of the accolades the Church heaps on Mary come after Mary's life. During her life she quietly went about her yes to God, growing in holiness, bearing the divine Son, being a faithful disciple. Mary models for us a "hidden life". The gospel for this feast is the one about Joseph desiring to divorce Mary quietly because "she was found with child." What courage it must have taken for Mary to say yes to Gabriel, to trust in God enough to risk her betrothal and her future! Such trust Mary must have learned from birth, through the guidance and care of her own parents.

We celebrate today Mary's nativity, a birth that challenges us to grow in holiness, to be constantly faithful to God's call, and to trust that all God asks of us will be fruitful. Mary's birth into human life paves the way for all of us to be born into eternal life. We are grateful for Mary's yes and for her being the mother of the Church and our mother, too.

Prayer for Vocations

Father, Creator and Ruler of the universe, you enrich your Church with the gift of lives freely given in priestly service. Through this generous example, touch the hearts of many others to follow your call, so that future generations also may experience the joy of coming to know your word and responding in faith. We ask this through Jesus Christ, your Son, our Lord. Amen.

Stewardship Reflection for the Twenty-Third Sunday in Ordinary Time September 4, 2022

At the conclusion of today's Gospel, we hear Jesus tell a "great crowd" that "...anyone of you who does not renounce all his possessions cannot be my disciple." A few of Jesus' immediate disciples, such as Peter, John and James, did just that: They responded to Jesus' call, renouncing everything to follow him. How do modern disciples of Jesus respond when confronted with this apparently harsh command of Jesus? Surely the renunciation of possessions need not mean literally giving all one's possessions away, does it? Questions we might ponder this week though: Do our possessions keep us from encountering Christ at Mass? Do they distract us from our parish family? Do our possessions interfere with our relationships? Do they make us insensitive to those less fortunate?

LIFE-LIGHTERS

Welcome to our first meeting of the season!
Monday, Sept 12th 11:00 am, Ryan Hall

This month the Act Now foundation will present a program entitled "Don't take the Fall" Stressing safety procedures in our homes.

Please bring a mug and your lunch. Desserts and coffee will be provided. Bring a friend! Men are welcomed! See you there!

Thank you to our parishioners who've made a gift to our Annual Appeal. If you haven't already donated, please consider making a gift to help our parish. Thank you for your help.

Are You In The Loop?

Each Week we send an email which contains important announcements, links to Mass, worship aids, bulletin and the latest news from our the parish. If you would like to be added to this list, please email rsabatella@stroseshorthills.org

School Bells Signal A New Start

The sound of the school bell is a welcomed sound to most parents who have worked diligently to prepare their children to work up to their potential. Many students will not be able to work up to their full potential as they are lacking in nourishing food and are dealing with stressful family situations. Please help Catholic Charities in its mission to help individuals and families who are hurting. This is a most opportune time to clean out the summer clothes for the Catholic Charities Donation Bin(s). We also welcome small appliances, shoes, linens, sheets, towels, tools, stuffed animals, novels, knickknacks, toys, and children's books. Thank you.

St. Rose Food Collection

Food donations are in great need at all food pantries in our area. Your donations help many who find themselves struggling to provide this basic need for them and their families.

Canned and dry food items may be dropped off anytime to our parish Blue Van located in the parking area. Thank you for your help!

If you're pregnant and don't feel like you have much of a choice, call these people.
