The life of our parish is guided by the parish mission which is to educate, form and transform persons into disciples of Christ and to foster their active participation in the life, work and mission of the Church. All parishes are called to be “schools of discipleship” assisting the People of God with the ongoing life long conversion required to be followers of Jesus Christ. It is in our parishes, families and in the world that we are living witnesses to Christ’s love and the faith we profess. Discipleship is our invitation to continue Christ’s saving mission here and now and through generous stewardship change the world!

St. Jude and St. Simon - Oct 28 -

St. Jude, also called Judas, Thaddaeus, or Lebbaeus, (flourished 1st century), one of the original Twelve Apostles of Jesus. He is the reputed author of the canonical Letter of Jude that warns against the licentious and blasphemous heretics. The devotion to him as patron saint of desperate causes began in France and Germany in the late 18th century.

According to John 14:22-23, Jude, after Jesus completed the Last Supper and announced his manifestation to his disciples, asks, "Lord, how is it that you will reveal yourself to us, and not to the world?" After Jesus' Ascension, Jude's history is unknown. Like St. Simon the Apostle, he seems to have come from the Zealots, the Jewish nationalistic party prior to 70 ce. Legends first appearing in the 4th century credit Simon and Jude with missionary work and martyrdom in Persia (noted in the apocryphal Passion of Simon and Jude). Thus, since the 8th century, the Western church has commemorated them together on October 28.
