The life of our parish is guided by the parish mission which is to educate, form and transform persons into disciples of Christ and to foster their active participation in the life, work and mission of the Church. All parishes are called to be "schools of discipleship" assisting the People of God with the ongoing life long conversion required to be followers of Jesus Christ. It is in our parishes, families and in the world that we are living witnesses to Christ's love and the faith we profess. Discipleship is our invitation to continue Christ's saving mission here and now and through generous stewardship change the world!

READING I

Wisdom 11:2-12:22

Before the LORD the whole universe is as a grain from a balance or a drop of morning dew come down upon the earth.
But you have mercy on all, because you can do all things;
and you overlook people's sins that they may repent.
For you love all things that are and loathe nothing that you have made;
for what you hated, you would not have fashioned.
And how could a thing remain, unless you willed it;
or be preserved, had it not been called forth by you?
But you spare all things, because they are yours,
O LORD and lover of souls,
for your imperishable spirit is in all things!
Therefore you rebuke offenders little by little, warn them and remind them of the sins they are committing,
that they may abandon their wickedness and believe in you, O LORD!

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Ps 145:1-2, 8-9, 10-11, 13, 14

R. I will praise your name for ever, my king and my God.

I will extol you, O my God and King,
and I will bless your name forever and ever.

Every day will I bless you,
and I will praise your name forever and ever.

R. I will praise your name for ever, my king and my God.

The LORD is gracious and merciful, slow to anger and of great kindness.

The LORD is good to all and compassionate toward all his works.

R. I will praise your name for ever, my king and my God.

Let all your works give you thanks, O LORD,
and let your faithful ones bless you.

Let them discourse of the glory of your kingdom and speak of your might.

R. I will praise your name for ever, my king and my God.

The LORD is faithful in all his words and holy in all his works.

The LORD lifts up all who are falling and raises up all who are bowed down.

R. I will praise your name for ever, my king and my God.

READING II

2 Thessalonians 4:6-8, 16-18

Brothers and sisters:

We always pray for you,
that our God may make you worthy of his calling and powerfully bring to fulfillment every good purpose and every effort of faith, that the name of our Lord Jesus may be glorified in you,
and you in him,
in accord with the grace of our God and Lord Jesus Christ.

We ask you, brothers and sisters, with regard to the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ and our assembling with him, not to be shaken out of your minds suddenly, or to be alarmed either by a "spirit," or by an oral statement, or by a letter allegedly from us to the effect that the day of the Lord is at hand.

ALLELUIA

John 3:16

R. Alleluia, alleluia.

God so loved the world that he gave his only Son,
so that everyone who believes in him might have eternal life.

R. Alleluia, alleluia.

GOSPEL

Luke 19:1-10

At that time, Jesus came to Jericho and intended to pass through the town.

Now a man there named Zacchaeus, who was a chief tax collector and also a wealthy man, was seeking to see who Jesus was;
but he could not see him because of the crowd,
for he was short in stature.

So he ran ahead and climbed a sycamore tree in order to see Jesus, who was about to pass that way.

When he reached the place, Jesus looked up and said,
"Zacchaeus, come down quickly,
for today I must stay at your house."

And he came down quickly and received him with joy.
When they all saw this, they began to grumble, saying,
"He has gone to stay at the house of a sinner."
But Zacchaeus stood there and said to the Lord,

"Behold, half of my possessions, Lord, I shall give to the poor, and if I have extorted anything from anyone I shall repay it four times over."

And Jesus said to him,

"Today salvation has come to this house
because this man too is a descendant of Abraham.
For the Son of Man has come to seek and to save what was lost."

PROFESSION OF FAITH

Nicene Creed

I believe in one God,
the Father almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten Son of God,
born of the Father before all ages,
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.
For us men and for our salvation
He came down from heaven,

(All bow) and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary and became man. (End bow)

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried,
and rose again on the third day
in accordance with the Scriptures.
He ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son,
who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.
I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.

I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

ACT OF SPIRITUAL COMMUNION

My Jesus,

I believe that you are present in the most Blessed Sacrament.

I love You above all things and I desire to receive You into my soul.

Since I cannot now receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually in my heart.

I embrace You as if You have already come, and unite myself wholly to You.

Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen.

Remembering The Faithful Departed

May Their souls, and the souls of all the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace. Amen.

The Evening of October 31st is HALLOW-een not HOLLOW-een!

Halloween is the night of October 31. The word means "Hallow's Eve." "Hallows" is not a word that is foreign to us. Every time the Lord's Prayer is said reference is made to the name of God being "hallowed" or holy. Halloween means holy evening. In other words, Halloween is the evening before the feast of "All Hallows" or "all the holy ones," the saints—All Saint Day! So Halloween isn't just the way October ends. It also is the way November begins! On Halloween night—the eve of All Saint's Day— we begin the Church's month to remember the dead.

Halloween is not a separate celebration; rather, it is the beginning of the celebration of All Saints, a celebration that continues into All Souls Day, the day of the dead. Actually for a thousand years Halloween has been the eve or vigil of two feasts: All Saints and All Souls. Soon the whole month of November was devoted to remembering the faithful departed, the deceased.

To celebrate Halloween devoid of All Saints and All Souls is to empty the day of its meaning. It is no wonder Halloween is "hollow" for some Christians. Many see Halloween as filled with superstition and fear and therefore reject the festival or at best celebrate "Hollow" een. All Saints Day is one of the premier days of the Church's autumn calendar. Halloween is not a separate celebration, the holy eve of the great autumn festival to honor our holy ancestors in faith.

Interfaith Bible Hour

with Rev. Bowie Snodgrass and Rev. Paula Toland

Dear friends,

I hope this finds you all well this fall! I wanted to extend an invitation to you and your communities to an interfaith bible study that Rabbi Josh Stanton and I started 6 years ago (formerly called Bakery Bible Hour, when we met at Splurge Bakery downtown).

Interfaith Bible Hour meets on the 1st Friday of the month from 9-10am (starting Nov 4 this year). Led by Rev. Bowie Snodgrass from Christ Church, Rev. Toland from St. Stephen's, and Cantor Lucy Fishbein from Temple B'nai Jeshurun, the group meets in person at Temple B'nai Jeshurun (1025 W S Orange Ave, Short Hills) with a Zoom option. We'll be reading I Samuel this fall and have been using the new Hebrew Bible translation by Robert Alter.

If you are interested in attending, please email the Rev. Paula Toland at rector@ststephensmillburn.org. She sends out a monthly reminder with the text and Zoom link.

Blessings,

Bowie

Stewardship Reflection for the Thirty-first Sunday in Ordinary Time October 30, 2022

The Gospel story of Jesus' encounter with Zacchaeus makes for an ideal stewardship reflection. So does today's first reading from the Book of Wisdom. Good stewards have faith in, and give thanks for, an almighty and powerful God who transcends the universe, but who gives personal attention to every human being. God loves his creation, his people. He lives in them, and through his Holy Spirit, instills a fundamental goodness in them. Good stewards recognize this movement of the Spirit as a gift, and make efforts to cultivate this gift and grow in their faith. Take time this week to stop and look around you, be aware of God's awe-inspiring creation, and give thanks for God's loving care and concern for each of us.
