*The Holy Family, the perfect model God offers us.
By imitating it, our homes will become living torches of God's light."
- Pope Leo XIV*

The life of our parish is guided by the parish mission which is to educate, form and transform persons into disciples of Christ and to foster their active participation in the life, work and mission of the Church. All parishes are called to be “schools of discipleship” assisting the People of God with the ongoing life long conversion required to be followers of Jesus Christ. It is in our parishes, families and in the world that we are living witnesses to Christ’s love and the faith we profess. Discipleship is our invitation to continue Christ’s saving mission here and now and through generous stewardship change the world!

Feast of the Holy Family

Today's liturgy not only offers us a glimpse into the life of the Holy Family of Jesus, Mary, and Joseph but also gives us an opportunity to pray for our own families.

Although private devotions to the Holy Family go back to about the seventeenth century, the feast did not enter the church's calendar until 1921.

The feast of the holy family of Jesus, Mary and Joseph (Sunday in the Christmas octave) is a festive occasion particularly suitable for the celebration of rites or moments of prayer proper to the Christian family. Some of these rites and prayers are included here for use in the home—the domestic Church!

Holy Family - Table Prayer

Prayed before main meal of the day.

Lord,
on the night before you died,
you gave your friends bread and wine as a sign that you wanted to be with us always and to give yourself to us in love so that we could have new life.
We pray today
that as we share together this food and drink
we may be aware that you are here with us;
that we may care for one another in love;
and bring new life to one another
by sharing your life.
We ask this in your name, Lord Jesus Christ. Amen.

Reflection— "I'll Be Home For Christmas"

To idealize "home and hearth" can be a part of the Christmas mystique; part of the Christmas reality involves being with family and loved ones. Home has been described as the place where, when you show up they have to take you in, or as a haven in a heartless world. Whatever one's definition, it is clear that what is meant by "home" is not a domicile or a "house." "Home" carries with it associations of relatedness, intimacy, or acceptance, and belonging. To speak of home automatically triggers many and varied associations. It is not a neutral word.

Is it any wonder that the many involved in evangelizing and outreach efforts in the Church today speaks of such programs as "welcome home" because without the alienated and estranged the church is without members of its family? An important challenge is to help people feel "at home." It is not just reaching the marginal and inviting them back that matters. It is welcoming them home and making them feel accepted, not judged for God has created every human person out of love and wishes to grant him or her eternal life in the communion of the Trinity. Such efforts are not the preserve of committees, much less the clergy and religious. It is the task of the baptized.

Such is the challenge of today's feast. It is not primarily concerned with domestic relations, self-help techniques for getting along, or being concerned with one's immediate family only. It means that we open our arms to embrace our brothers and sisters in faith, and realize that when we gather for worship, we gather as family, members of the household of God.

Blessing of A Family

We bless your name, O Lord,
for sending your own incarnate Son,
to become part of a family,
so that, as he lived its life,
he would experience its worries and its joys.

We ask you, Lord,
to protect and watch over this family,
so that in the strength of your grace
its members may enjoy prosperity, possess the priceless gift of your peace,
and, as the Church alive in the home,
bear witness in this world to your glory.
We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Blessing For a New Year

Remember us, O God;
from age to age be our comforter.
You have given us the wonder of time, blessings in days and nights, seasons and years. Bless us, your children,
at the turning of the year
and fill the months ahead with the bright hope that is ours in the coming of Christ.
You are our God,
living and reigning forever and ever. Amen.

The Feast of the Holy Family of Jesus, Mary and Joseph

We celebrate the Feast of the Holy Family on the first Sunday after Christmas! This feast day is a reminder to us of the example Mary and Joseph set for all of us in welcoming Jesus into their lives. The Holy Family serves as a model for us all in which to live in faith and simplicity.

Prayer for Family Commitment

Dear God our Father, you have called all Christian families to be a sign of your love to the world.

Help us to be generous with the gifts of life and love that you have showered on our family. May we share them so that our homes become true signs of unitive and fruitful love.

Let us never forget to thank you each day for all that sustains us and to look to Christ, who comes to us in the events of family life, in the sacraments of the Church, and in service to the poor.

In all of this, our family becomes a living expression of your Church, a hallowed home of life and love. By the power of the Holy Spirit, may all of us—spouses, parents, and children— share, as members of his Body, in Jesus' mission to build a civilization of love. Father, we ask this in Jesus' name in union with the Holy Spirit. Amen.

SOLEMNITY OF MARY, THE HOLY MOTHER OF GOD

Holyday of Obligation

January 1, 2026

Mass Schedule

5:30 PM (anticipated Dec 31)

9:00 AM New Years Day

January 1 is New Year's Day in our secular life, but in our liturgical life, it is the Solemnity of the Blessed Virgin Mary, the Holy Mother of God.

In the year 431, the Council of Ephesus declared that the Virgin Mary was Mother of God, in Greek, Theotokos, "God-bearer." Mary was celebrated under this title on the First of January until about the eighth century when the day was changed to mark the circumcision of the Lord. The reforms of the Vatican II returned the day to Mary, Holy Mother of God but kept the Gospel reading which refers to Jesus' circumcision.

MARY THE MOTHER OF GOD

The reforms of the Vatican II returned the day to Mary, Mother of God but kept the Gospel reading which refers to Jesus' circumcision.

Pope Paul IV designated January 1 as a day of prayer

TABLE PRAYER

Prayed before main meal of the day.

REFLECTION— GOD'S POWERLESSNESS

Jesus is God-with-us, Emmanuel. The great mystery of God becoming human is God's desire to be loved by us. By becoming a vulnerable child, completely dependent on human care, God wants to take away all distance between the human and the divine.

Who can be afraid of a little child that needs to be fed, to be cared for, to be taught, to be guided? We usually talk about God as the all-powerful, almighty God on whom we depend completely. But God wanted to become the all-powerless, all-vulnerable God who completely depends on us. How can we be afraid of a God who wants to be "God-with-us" and needs us to become "Us-with-God"?

BLESSING OF A FAMILY

We bless your name, O Lord,
